Miso Soup With Shitake Mushrooms And Scallions

You'll love this rich, flavorful version of miso soup, hearty enough for a meal. Mushrooms are rich in selenium, copper, zinc and iron, all nutrients that make your thyroid run more efficiently while sulfur-rich scallions are a natural detoxifier. Iodine-rich sea vegetables, like kombu and seaweed, are commonly found at your local Whole Foods in the Asian food section.

Fermented soybean products – miso, tempeh, shoyu, natto, tofu and tamari –are a healthy staple in many Asian cultures and are eaten in SMALL quantities.

Unfortunately in the U.S., we have mass produced soybeans without traditional sprouting or fermenting methods in products like soy protein, soy milks soy nuts, soy meats, which have been linked to thyroid disease, digestive problems, reproductive disorders, cancer and other illnesses.

- 6 cups water
- 1 6-inch piece of kombu (kelp)
- 2 packets bonito flakes (katsuobushi)
- 12 ounces firm tofu, cut into half-inch cubes
- 1 strip wakame seaweed
- 6 shiitake mushrooms, stems discarded and sliced thinly
- 6 tablespoons white miso
- 4 scallions, minced

1. In a large pot, boil water. Add kombu and bonito flakes and boil for 8 minutes.
2. Remove kombu and strain the bonito flakes, so you're left with clear broth.
3. In the same pot with the clear broth, add cubed tofu, wakame, shiitake mushrooms and cook on medium-high heat for a few minutes.

4. In a small bowl, dissolve the miso paste in a small amount of hot water until creamy, then add the mixture to the soup and cook on low for 3 minutes. Garnish with scallions.

Spring Green Salad

Simple doesn't have to be boring. With organic greens plus a one-minute dressing topped with healthy sprouted seeds, salad doesn't get much easier than this. Ingredients are healthy and intense, giving gourmet taste sans sugar and cheese.

- 1 head butter or green leaf lettuce
 - 1 or 2 scallions, diced
 - 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
 - 1/2 lemon, juiced
 - Sea salt and freshly ground pepper
 - 2 to 3 tablespoons cold pressed extra virgin olive oil
 - 2 tablespoons sprouted pumpkin or sunflower seeds (optional)
1. Wash and dry lettuce thoroughly using a salad spinner. Prepare your dressing as lettuce sits.
 2. For the dressing, in a small bowl, combine mustard, lemon juice, salt and pepper and whisk well. Slowly add olive oil and whisk until smooth and well incorporated. That's it!
 3. Place salad in a large bowl and top with dressing immediately before serving. Sprinkle with sprouted pumpkin or sunflower seeds.

Spicy Soba Noodles

Soba noodles, hearty and flavorful Japanese noodles made from buckwheat pair perfectly with watercress or arugula and a spicy dressing. If you are following a gluten-free diet, look for 100% buckwheat soba noodles. Eden and Mitoku are two good brands.

- 1 package of dried soba noodles
 - 2 1½ tablespoons gluten-free tamari soy sauce
 - 1 teaspoon chili-garlic sauce
 - 1 teaspoon toasted sesame oil
 - 6 cups stemmed watercress or arugula
 - 1 tablespoon grape seed or sunflower oil
 - sesame seeds to garnish (optional)
 - chopped scallions or cilantro to garnish (optional)
1. Bring a large pot of water to a boil over high heat. Add the noodles and cook for about 8 minutes, or according to package directions, until done. Meanwhile, to make the sauce, in a small bowl, stir together the tamari sauce, chili-garlic sauce, and sesame oil.
 2. Drain the noodles in a colander. If you are using 100% buckwheat soba, give the noodles a quick rinse with hot tap water.
 3. Put the watercress or arugula in the hot pan. Return the noodles to the pan along with the grape seed oil. Using tongs, toss to combine. The watercress should wilt from the residual heat of the pan and the noodles. Add the sauce and toss until well incorporated. Garnish with sesame seeds and chopped fresh herbs and serve warm or at room temperature.

This healthy and sumptuous dish could not be easier, and makes a perfect option for Meatless Monday. Look for the soba noodles, chili-garlic sauce (a mixture of chili, garlic, and vinegar), and toasted sesame oil, and Tamari sauce in the Asian foods section of your grocery store.
